

Facility Management

9 - 13 December 2024

London (UK)

Facility Management

course code: E6003 From: 9 - 13 December 2024 Venue: London (UK) - course Fees: 4500 Euro

Program Objectives:

By the end of the program, participants will be able to:

- Understand the foundations of facility management.
- Optimize people, process, assets and the work environment to support delivery of the organization business objectives.
- Know the managerial, technical, and financial considerations of facility management.
- Discover the importance of proper maintenance management and project management of facility management.

This Program is designed for:

Personnel who are interested in learning facility management and the considerations that affect facility management. This program is worth 25 NASBA CPEs.

Program Outline:

Overview of Facility Management

- What Is Facility Management?
- The Role of the Facility Manager

Facility Management Planning

- Annual Facility Planning
- Long Range Planning

Facility Financial Management

- Trend and Ration Analyses
- Capital Budgeting Evaluations
- Risk Analysis Models
- Investment Value Approach
- Outsourcing

Real Estate Planning and Considerations

- The Process of Acquisition
- Site Criteria Considerations
- Lease Considerations
- Purchase Considerations

Engineering Planning

- Design Requirements and Layouts
- Space Planning
- Facility Management Information System
- Project Management

- Budgeting
- Bidding
- Service Level Agreement

Maintenance and Operations

- Corrective Maintenance
- Preventive Maintenance
- Predictive Maintenance

Health and Safety Considerations

