Management - Master Class

course code: C8138 From: 9 - 20 September 2024 Venue: Boston (USA) - course Fees: 5500 Euro

Introduction

This fast-paced seminar provides an opportunity to stand back from the day-to-day pressures of managerial life and focus on the wider arena. Rather than covering all areas of management, the programme focuses on those topics that many Management Professionals find little time to address during their typical busy working day. The aim is for participants to gain a holistic view of their wider organisational and strategic context and give them the tools to formulate meaningful longer-term personal and organisational objectives.

The highlights of this seminar are:

- How to analyse the external and internal forces at work in an organisation
- How to develop and communicate a compelling strategic vision
- How to measure and manage performance
- How to interpret organisational culture
- How to build influence and trust within and beyond the team
- How to delegate effectively

Objectives

By the end of this conference you will be able to:

- Describe the effect of the external and competitive environment on their organisation
- Select appropriate methods for measuring and managing performance
- Describe their organisation's culture and climate and their effects on performance
- Link human resource management to strategic objectives
- Consider a range of approaches to delegation
- Select appropriate strategies for influencing and motivating others

Conference Methodology

The seminar will combine presentations with facilitated discussions, interactive practical exercises, small-group activities and case studies. The course is delivered in a highly interactive style, and will be supported by case studies and video to enhance the learning experience
