

IT governance

21 October - 8 November

Tbilisi (Georgia)

IT governance

course code: B15021 From: 21 October - 8 November 2024 Venue: Tbilisi (Georgia) - course Fees: 6750 Euro

Description:

Get a head start and explore the concepts surrounding Information Technology Governance tools and techniques. IT Governance is a subset discipline of Corporate Governance focused on Information Technology (IT) systems, their performance, and risk management. This introductory course will discuss a range of topics from elements and domains of IT Governance, understanding and constructing frameworks, to proprietary frameworks and national/international standards. The Sarbanes-Oxley Act and Basel II will also be discussed.

Who this course is for:

- Recent graduates looking to get a foothold in the IT Industry.
- Individuals looking for work within the Public or Private Sector.
- An organization looking to increase its information transparency and security.
- An individual or organization looking to implement standard IT Governance procedures and practices.

Requirements:

- Basic understanding of the IT industry
- Knowledge of the English language

What you'll learn:

- Learn about IT Governance, its characteristics, and importance.
- Study the benefits of IT Governance.
- Learn about building the foundation for IT Governance.
- Know the three parts of the foundation in detail.
- Understand IT Governance elements and domains.
- Learn about IT Governance Frameworks.
- Learn about the different Proprietary Governance Frameworks, their principles, components, and benefits
- Learn about National/International Standards Frameworks, its principles, and features.
- Know the Sarbanes-Oxley Act, its elements, benefits, and impact.
- Know Basel II, its purpose, requirements, and its Three Pillars concept.
- Learn how to achieve better IT Governance.
- Explore the future of IT Governance.

